CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "60 MINUTES"

10/17/04—"A Deal With The Devil" was the story about Coral Eugene Watts, who may have committed close to 100 murders. But a plea bargain made over 20 years ago by which he agreed to confess to 12 unsolved homicides in return for immunity, may result in his early release from prison.

10/24/04—"The Murder of Emmett Till", Parts 1 and 2. This was a report on the Justice Department reopening of the 50-year-old murder case of Emmett Till, a 14-year-old black boy who was tortured and murdered in Mississippi for whistling at a white woman. Roy Bryant and J.W. Milan, two white men, were tried for the crime but were acquitted by an all-white jury.

11/28/04—"The Case of the Spy Ring". Airman Ahman al-Halaby and Capt. James Yee were accused of running a spy ring at the Guantanamo Bay detention facility and faced the death penalty. Now, the government's case has collapsed and they are being called victims of a botched terrorism investigation.

12/12/04—"Who Killed Carolyn Muncey?" reported that Paul Gregory House was convicted and is facing execution for the 1985 murder of Carolyn Muncey, a Tennessee woman. New evidence has emerged which suggests that Hubert Muncey Jr., the woman's husband was the real killer.

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "60 MINUTES WEEKDAY EDITION"

10/13/04—"The State vs. James Hamm" was a follow-up to a 60 Minutes story from 1994, which was on James Hamm, the convicted murderer who was sentenced to 25-years to life at Arizona State Prison. Arizonans are disturbed because not only did Hamm receive a free college education while in prison, but his sentence was commuted and he attended law school at Arizona State University at taxpayers' expense.

10/20/04—A report on Kevin Mitnick, a computer criminal who stole corporate secrets from the world's biggest corporations. The story included an interview with Mitnick who, having served five years in prison, was invited to speak before Congress and has since launched a new career as a consultant and public speaker on potential threats to security.

11/03/04—An interview with Specialist Sean Baker, a US National Guardsman attacked and seriously injured by his fellow soldiers during a training exercise last year at Guantanamo Bay.

12/15/04—"Radioactive" was a report that in Georgia, once part of the Soviet Union and now an independent country, radioactive materials and the ingredients for biological weapons left behind after the fall of the Soviet Union are easily available to potential terrorists.

12/29/04—A report on the war that is still going on in Afghanistan where hard-core Taliban and al-Qaeda are fighting US and Afghan forces.

12/29/04—A report on mandatory sentencing for lesser crimes focusing on the case of David Lester, a young college student with no criminal record who was sentenced to life in prison with no chance of parole for selling cocaine. This follow-up story consisted of an interview with David Lester, who is now free at age 42.

CBS TELEVISION NETWORK: "48 HOURS"

10/02/04—"The Ghosts of El Segundo" was a report on Richard Phillips and Milton Curtis, two young police officers on a routine stop in El Segundo, California in July of 1957 who were gunned down by a man who, unknown to the police, had just committed robbery and rape at a nearby lover's lane. Investigators searched for more than 45 years for the man who murdered two of their own. Finally, investigators were able to track down the killer—Gerald Mason—an unsuspecting 69-year-old family man living in Columbia, S.C.

10/16/04—"Who Killed Stephanie Crowe?" was a report on the mystery of 12-year-old Stephanie Crowe, who in 1998 was murdered in the bedroom of her Escondido, California home. Following two days of police interrogation with no lawyer or parent present, Michael Crowe confessed to killing his sister and implicated two friends—Josh Treadway and Aaron Houser. Although the boys quickly recanted the confession they were ordered to stand trial for murder. The Crowe family believed that a mentally ill drifter named Richard Tuite was the killer and a reexamination of Tuite's clothing revealed the presence of Stephanie's blood. After spending almost a year in prison, charges against the boys were dropped when a judge ruled that their confessions were obtained under duress. The investigation was taken over by the state attorney general's office and six years after the crime, Richard Tuite was tried for murder, found guilty and sentenced to the maximum term of 13 years in prison.

11/06/04—"The Right To Kill" reported the story of Cherry Hammock of Crawford, Georgia, who claimed that she killed her husband Jay, in self-defense in September 2001. Cherry was brought to trial in Crawford County, found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. Two years later the conviction was overturned due to a High Court ruling that a juror acted inappropriately during deliberations.

11/13/04—A report on Maria Cruz, the 35-year-old New York City financial analyst who disappeared on the afternoon of April 13, 2003. Police found evidence that pointed to Dean Faiello, a childhood friend of the missing woman. Faiello posed as a doctor, and is thought to have treated Cruz for a mouth infection the day she vanished. In February 2004, authorities found Cruz's body stuffed in a suitcase and buried in the cement in the garage of Faiello's former home in Newark, N.J.

11/20/04—Report that in the summer of 2002 a July 4th weekend of partying in the wealthy community of Newport Beach, CA ended with three teenage boys being accused of rape and facing the prospect of life in prison. The critical evidence used at a subsequent trial was a videotape made by the boys themselves.

11/27/04—A report on the 1947 brutal murder of Elizabeth Short, a young struggling actress whose body was discovered in a vacant lot in January 1947. This murder has baffled the Los Angeles Police Department for decades.

12/04/04—"The Alibi" was a report that in September 2000, David Camm, a former Indiana State Trooper from New Albany, returned home from a basketball game and claimed that he found his wife Kim and their two children shot dead in the garage. Camm was arrested for the murders, because microscopic drops of blood found on his T-shirt and basketball shoes gave evidence to his involvement in the murders. A jury found him guilty and he was sentenced to 195 years in prison with no chance of parole. Two years later an Indiana appeals court threw out the murder convictions, criticizing the judge in Camm's trial for improperly admitting evidence of adultery, ruling that evidence might have unfairly influenced the jury.

12/18/04—A report on the unsolved 1996 murder of six-year-old JonBenet Ramsey. This report examines new evidence that investigators hope will lead to the identification of the girl's killer or killers. The DNA evidence collected from the crime scene seems to completely clear the Ramseys, and is being used to check out dozens of suspects who were ignored for years.
